Land of 5 Hectares Torres Novas

Excellent opportunity to expand an Agroindustry development business.

The value and potential of agribusiness in this region create ideal conditions for a sustainable and viable business in the future.

Climate: Influenced by the proximity of the Serra d'Aire, it has a continental microclimate with Mediterranean influences.

Winter: Prevailing NW winds cause lower moisture content and cooler temperatures.

Summer: Dry air raises temperatures.

The presence of a cypress grove adds a natural charm to the property.
